B. MEETING REPORTS

NBEA Subcommittee Reports

Catalyst Update

ED Wilbeck reported he and Kaitlin Reese from Catalyst Public Affairs will be meeting with Senator McCollister regarding LR191. He has also reached out to Dan Sweetwood, Executive Director of the Public Accountancy Board, to see if he would be interested in attending the meeting.

Legislative Committee

ED Wilbeck provided a list of administrative pros and cons of an allied board along with comments from the Board of Geologists.

Farm Building Committee

A copy of the letter to the Attorney General's office withdrawing the Board's October 20, 2020, requesting clarification of the Engineers and Architects Regulation Act related to farm building classifications was provided. A response to ED Wilbeck's initial stakeholder letter from the Nebraska Grain and Feed Association was also provided.

ED Wilbeck will contact Assistant Attorney General (AAG), John Jelkin, to set up a meeting with the architect members and the Farm Building Committee members as requested at the September meeting. November 9, 2021, was set as a tentative date.

Rules Revisions Committee

A copy of the draft Remediation Guide as discussed at the August meeting was provided. The following additional revisions were made:

- What is Remediation? – The section needs to indicate that remediation is used on projects subject to the Engineers and Architects Act, but did not involve licensees.

- The State Fire Marshal has Already Approved My Project..? – This also needs to include the local building official.

C. OLD BUSINESS

New Licensee Ceremony Update

A copy of the latest program draft was provided. October 15, 2021, is the deadline for RSVP. Reminders were sent on October 7, 2021, to all eligible licensees who had not already responded. To date, 41 engineers and 5 architects have responded. Approximately 80 have not responded as of October 14.

Members not involved in the ceremony requested ED Wilbeck to let them know if the event capacity is not reached as several would like to attend if seats are available.
